

IROIRO CAFÉ IN MAY (ENGLISH)

Would you like to have a coffee at lunch time? The Office of Gender Equality Promotion, Saga University, organizes lunch time talk events on gender issues monthly. IROIRO means “several” in Japanese, and we talk on several issues. In May, we would like to have it in English (this is our first trial!)

Please feel free to join us, and do not forget to bring your lunch. Delicious coffee waits for you!
